SUPERINTENDENT SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Schaeffer received an email from the Principal at Northeastern Schools regarding Peyton Meyer. Peyton Meyer is being recognized for being a citizen of high character through his actions and leadership.

Mrs. Schaeffer recognized the HES 5th Grade Teachers and students. She received praise from a tour guide at the Indiana Statehouse. The students and teachers were recognized for their exceptional representation of Nettle Creek Schools while attending the Indiana Statehouse. The 5th Grade Teachers include: Mrs. Annie Koontz, Mrs. Leah Stinson, Mr. Adam Comer and Mrs. Rachel Harman.

Mrs. Schaeffer recognized Peggy Muller for being nominated for the Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teacher.

SCHOOL NEWS

Mrs. Hokey is excited to welcome Chloe Beaty to the Nettle Creek team soon. Mrs. Hokey also shared that teachers will be conducting parent teacher conferences next week.

Mr. Hallatt shared that all sophomores took the PSAT today. Seniors participated in manufacturing day to see if they want to pursue a field in manufacturing. Juniors attended IU East life in the day of a college student. The eighth graders held their annual challenge day. Everyone that attended spoke highly of the event. The girls' basketball team has begun their practices. Mr. Hallatt wanted to wish the cross country team good luck as they travel to Shelbyville this weekend to compete in Regionals.

Mrs. Blaase stated that the future is bright for the community and how the respect from Athletes and students is great to see.

Mr. Davis requested that a spreadsheet be created to include the ideas and concerns that are brought up at the meetings. He understands that all Administrators have a lot on their plate and things can get buried. He would like to use this spreadsheet as a reminder for everyone. Mrs. Schaeffer stated she would create the spreadsheet and share it with the board so they can add things as needed as well.
